

Basketmaking and Willow Growing in the First World War

Exhibition, talk and films

A pop-up exhibition about the work of the Basketry Then and Now project at the University of Hertfordshire exploring the history and legacy of basketmaking and willow growing during the First World War, a talk about the work of the project repeated at regular intervals throughout the day, and screenings of the films produced by the project.

Willow and Wetlands Visitor Centre

Stoke St Gregory, Somerset, TA3 6HY
01823 490249
www.englishwillowbaskets.co.uk

Saturday 23 September 2017

9.30am–5.00pm

Free entry

Transporting pigeons to the front line, France, 2 June 1918. Image © IWM (Q 8878).

University of Hertfordshire

UH

Everyday Lives in War

First World War Engagement Centre

<http://everydaylivesinwar.ac.uk>